II.1.4) Short description:

The business requirement for the provision of a DAP solution is to enable the European Central Bank (ECB) to address and mitigate the risks to the authenticity and usability of information and provide the long-term management and preservation of its digital information holdings. The mission of the DAP service is to provide the ECB with the means to safeguard its institutional memory and meet the legal and regulatory requirements in reference to the retention of and public access to its information.

The DAP service will be comprised of 2 distinct components, the first being the preservation function and the second being an archive function for the ingested digital unstructured records with a retention period of 15 years and longer.

The success factors will be that the ECB is able to maintain access to readable, intelligible, identifiable, retrievable, understandable and authentic information for as long as needed and that the ECB's service level requirements are met.

III.1) Conditions for participation

III.1.1) Suitability to pursue the professional activity, including requirements relating to enrolment on professional or trade registers

List and brief description of conditions:

The ECB shall exclude tenderers from participation if they, or their management bodies, have been convicted by a final judgment of participation in a criminal organisation, corruption, fraud, terrorist offences or financing, money laundering, child labour or human trafficking, as referred to in Article 57(1) of Directive 2014/24/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council, or of any other illegal activity detrimental to the financial interests of the Union, the ECB or the NCBs.

The ECB may exclude tenderers from participation at any time if:

- (a) they are bankrupt, being wound up, subject to administration or in any similar situation provided for in national legislation or regulations;
- (b) they are guilty of grave professional misconduct, which renders their integrity questionable;
- (c) they are in breach of obligations relating to the payment of social security contributions or the payment of taxes in accordance with the legal provisions of the country in which they are established or where the contract is to be performed;
- (d) they have shown significant or persistent deficiencies in the performance of another public contract, or with their obligations under environmental, social and labour law;
- (e) they or their management, staff or agents are subject to a conflict of interest that cannot be remedied by less intrusive means;
- (f) they are guilty of serious misrepresentation in supplying the information required by the ECB; or
- (g) they contact other candidates or tenderers with the purpose of restraining competition, or try to unduly influence the decision-making process in the procurement procedure.

Tenderers shall certify that they are not in one of the situations listed above and provide the evidence specified in the tender documents. If such circumstances arise in the course of the procedure the tenderer concerned shall inform the ECB thereof without undue delay. Tenderers may submit evidence to demonstrate their eligibility despite the existence of grounds for exclusion.

III.1.2) Economic and financial standing

List and brief description of selection criteria:

Tenderers shall have the economic, financial, technical and professional capacity to perform the contract.

As evidence tenderers shall submit the information requested in the application form (Annex 1 of the call for applications, please see Section VI.3 of the present contract notice for details on how to access the tender documentation):

(a) registration number(s) in the Creditreform and/or Dun & Bradstreet credit rating/scoring databases or the annual reports for the last closed 3 consecutive business years enclosed;

(b) application form (Annex 1 to call for applications) completed.

Minimum level(s) of standards possibly required:

Tenderers must meet the following minimum requirements:

The annual total net turnover reached or exceeded 2 500 000 EUR for each of the last closed 3 financial years.

If the candidate is a temporary grouping it may add the respective turnover of its members. However, 1 of the members shall have achieved on its own 60 % of the above amount.

III.1.3) Technical and professional ability

List and brief description of selection criteria:

Tenderers shall have the economic, financial, technical and professional capacity to perform the contract.

As evidence tenderers shall submit the information requested in the application form (Annex 1 of the call for applications).

Minimum level(s) of standards possibly required:

At least 2 similar contracts performed during the last 3 years, which are comparable in terms of (1) scope of the contract and (2) the description of activities.

Sufficient number of staff allocated to the project with English language skills equivalent to level C1 of the CEFR (see call for applications document for detailed information).

VI.2) Information about electronic workflows

VI.3) Additional information:

In accordance with the ECB procurement rules, the present negotiated tender consists of 2 distinct phases. Firstly, a pre-qualification phase, which starts with the publication of the present contract notice and finishes with the establishment of a shortlist of up to 5 tenderers who will be invited to submit a full offer to the ECB. The second phase is thus the tendering phase, which starts with the submission of the full tender specifications by the ECB to the shortlisted tenderers and will end with the signature of the contract with the tenderer who submitted the economically most advantageous tender.

Any interested economic operator (company, consortium) may request to take part in the first pre-qualification phase by submitting an application in accordance with the requirements laid down in this contract notice published in the Official Journal of the European Union and the call for applications published in the dedicated extranet site of the ECB (see below for details).

The present tender procedure shall be governed by the Decision (EU) 2016/245 of the European Central Bank of 9.2.2016 laying down the rules on procurement (ECB/2016/2) (hereinafter: Decision).
