II.2.4) Description of the procurement:

The scope of the joint procurement is the conclusion of multi-supplier framework agreements with at least 3, but potentially more, economic operators for the performance of external quality assessment services for the internal audit functions as outlined in Section II.1.4) (the 'services'), provided that a sufficient number of suppliers meet the selection and award criteria. The framework contractors shall provide the beneficiaries with the services during a period of 4 years starting from the signature of the contracts by both parties (indicative starting date is 1.6.2017). The services to be provided by the suppliers shall cover all aspects and processes of the internal audit activity described in the tender specifications (see invitation to tender (ITT), Annex 1 — tender specifications). The contracts do not confer on the framework contractors any exclusive right to provide the services. This means that any beneficiary will have the option, but not the obligation, to order the services directly from the selected framework contractors, after reopening competition, in conformity with the provisions of the contracts and of the provisions of Decision (EU) 2016/245 of the European Central Bank of 9.2.2016 laying down the rules on procurement (ECB/2016/2), in particular its Article 18(4)(b). Notwithstanding the expiry of the contract(s), specific orders agreed on the basis of the contract(s) prior to their expiry may continue until the completion of the respective services.

After registration an e-mail will be sent with a new user name and password. The Internet address will remain the same. Use the new credentials to download the tender documents.

Your mere registration and downloading the tender documents does not constitute a tender. You must submit your tender to the ECB, on time, in the format requested and including the content as further instructed in the tender documents.

In case of problems in accessing the Internet platform for registration and/or downloading the documents please contact the ECB under the following e-mail address: procurement@ecb.europa.eu quoting the procurement number and problem experienced.

The tender procedure shall be open on equal terms to all natural or legal persons resident or located in the EU and to all natural and legal persons resident or located in a country which has ratified the World Trade Organisation Agreement on Government Procurement or has concluded with the EU a bilateral agreement on procurement under the conditions laid down in the said agreements.

During the procurement procedure tenderers shall not contact any ECB staff members or organisations/ persons working for the ECB with regard to this tender procedure other than the person indicated in Section I.1). Tenderers shall also not contact potential competitors unless they intend to form a temporary grouping with them or to involve them as subcontractors. Any violation of this communication rule may lead to the exclusion of the tenderer in question.

This joint tender procedure is carried out by the ECB, on its own behalf and for the benefit of institutions entitled to participate in the activities of the EPCO, such as central banks of the ESCB and national competent authorities of the Member States of the EU participating in the single supervisory mechanism, which are or may become members of EPCO, in accordance with Decision of the European Central Bank of 17.11.2008 laying down the framework for joint Eurosystem procurement (ECB/2008/17) (beneficiaries).

List of EPCO members: <http://www.epco.lu/links.php>

In accordance with Decision of the European Central Bank of 17.11.2008 laying down the framework for joint Eurosystem procurement (ECB/2008/17), any other central bank of the ESCB is entitled to become an EPCO member at any time.

Institutions other than central banks may also participate in EPCO's activities, such as national authorities of Member States, EU agencies and bodies or international organisations, upon invitation by the Governing Council. Among these non-ESCB institutions entitled to participate in EPCO's activities, the present EPCO joint tender procedure is carried out by the ECB for the benefit of national competent authorities (NCAs) of the Member States of the European Union, participating in the SSM, and all ESCB central banks. List of institutions entitled to participate in EPCO's activities (beneficiaries) and the date from which they obtain that right: <http://www.epco.lu/links.php>
