II.2.4) Description of the procurement:

The required storage space shall be approximately 450-500 m² and must be located within no more than 300 km from the ECB Main Building in Frankfurt am Main. The ECB intends to award a contract for duration of four years with a possibility of extension for two further years (six years in total). The envisaged contract start date is December 2021.

The logistics service provider shall store, handle and maintain standard goods such as stationery, paper documents, office supplies, ECB branded merchandise, gifts and giveaways, furniture parts etc. and non-standard goods and equipment such as fragile items, architectural models, glass and constructions equipment, furniture parts. The handling of these non-standard goods might require special equipment (e.g. electro lifter for heavy weight items and over-sized goods) as some of these goods are very heavy i.e. up to 2-3 tons. The supplier shall also be able to maintain stock and delivery to the ECB and return deliveries to other ECB suppliers/contractors whenever necessary and therefore is expected to act as an interface with other ECB suppliers. The ECB's suppliers for the standard goods shall deliver the goods directly to the storage warehouse of the service provider. Such goods are then delivered by the storage warehouse provider to the ECB's logistics Centre or an alternative location in the Rhine-Main area upon request by the ECB.
